Menu

Search for routes, info, and more

Accessibility on the MBTA

The MBTA is more accessible to customers with disabilities than ever before. With hundreds of new low-floor buses, the ongoing expansion of elevators in our stations, audio-visual stop and service announcements, and free travel training, we're striving to become a global model of accessible public transportation.

Accessible transit benefits everyone—older adults, parents, students, commuters, tourists, and the many other riders we serve each day.

Access in Motion

Accessibility Improvements

Learn about the MBTA's plans for a fully accessible system.

What's Trending

Read updates about our ongoing initiatives to make the T more accessible.

History of Accessibility at the MBTA

Learn more about the history and impact of the 2006 Daniels-Finegold Settlement Agreement.

Get Involved

Learn how to become an active in-person or online participant in accessibility at the T.

Access in Motion Campaign

Learn more about the System-Wide Accessibility (SWA) campaign to promote the MBTA's work towards making the T accessible for all.

Download the Access in Motion Guide

Our Access in Motion guide provides an overview of accessible travel on the MBTA.

Choose your language

Contact Us

Contact MBTA Customer Support with any questions, concerns, or comments about accessibility. Be prepared to provide as many details as possible so we can provide the most helpful response.

Learn more about the accessibility complaint process

Main Hotline: 617-222-3200
Toll Free: 800-392-6100
711 for TTY callers; VRS for ASL callers

Elevator/Escalator Hotline: 617-222-2828

Online

Send a Message

Things to Know Before Your Trip

We encourage you to plan ahead before your trip on the MBTA. To get started, check out our resources, or visit our FAQs.

Mobility Center

The Mobility Center can help you plan trips, apply for reduced fare passes, sign up for The RIDE, and more.

Plan Your Trip

Find out how to contact our team and plan your trip in advance.

Travel Training Services and Tools

Reduced Fares and Passes

We offer free public transportation training classes for older adults

People 65 and older and people with disabilities may qualify for MBTA

Key Policies

Read MBTA accessibility policies on priority seating, service animals, requests for assistance, and more.

FAQs

Get answers to our riders' most frequently asked questions about accessible travel on the T.

Recent Updates

AUGUST 21, 2026

Updated Access in Motion Guide Now Available

JULY 28, 2026

The MBTA Celebrates ADA 36

T Access Guides by Transit Mode

Our interactive T Access Guides can help you learn ways to use the T independently. To get started, select the mode of transit you use the most.

Bus Access Guide

Subway Access Guide

All MBTA buses are accessible to people with disabilities. Learn more about accessibility features, entering and exiting buses, and what you can expect on your trip.

Most MBTA subways and trolley stations are accessible to people with disabilities. Learn more about station and train accessibility features, entering and exiting the T, and what you can expect on your trip.

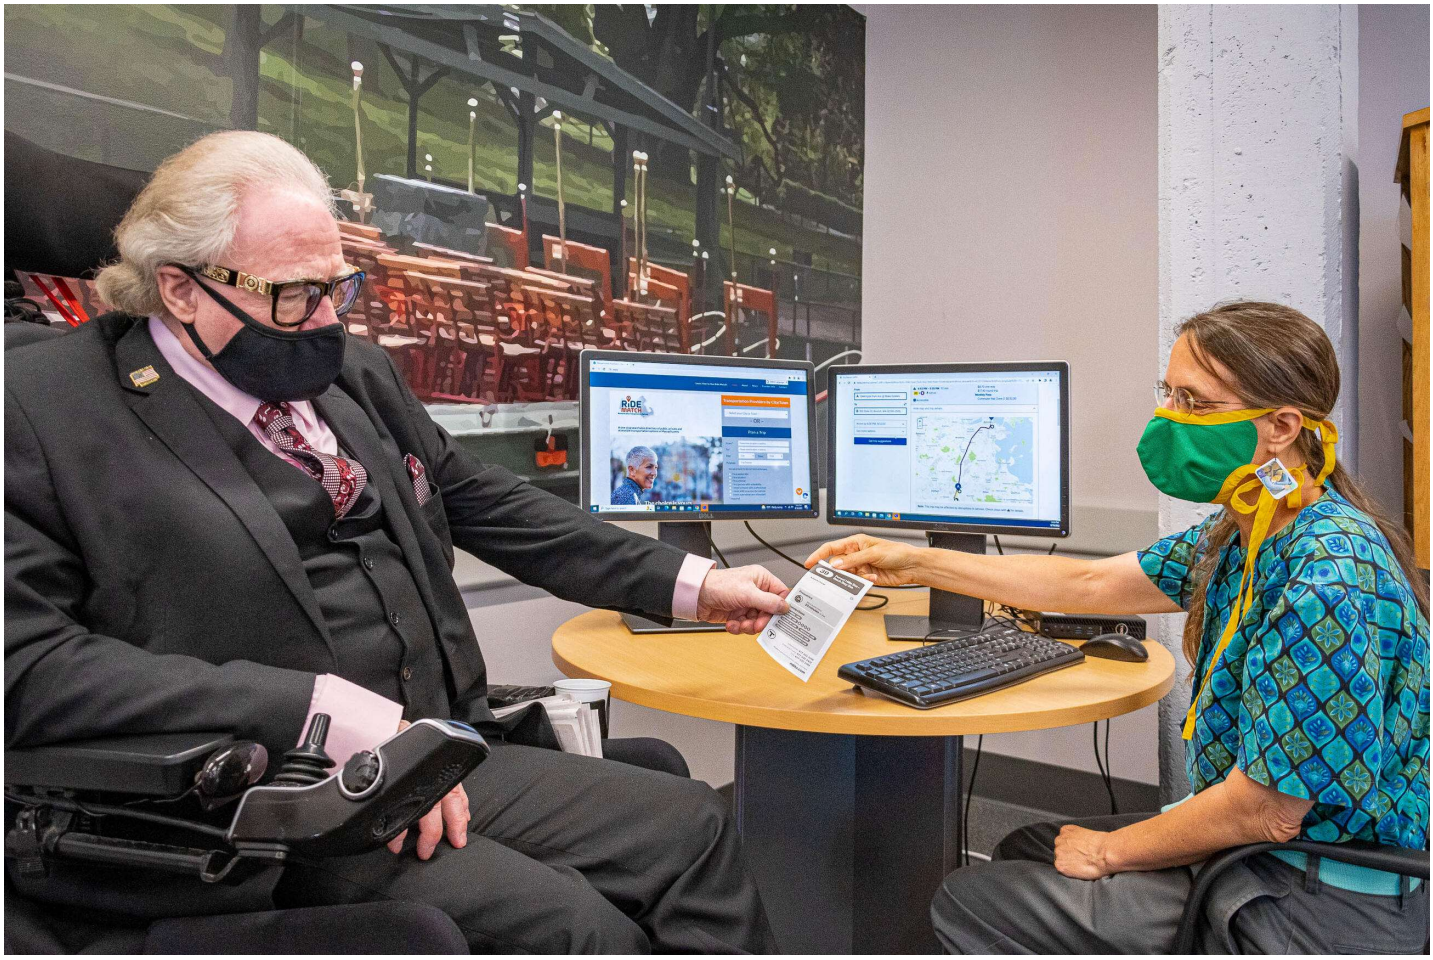

Commuter Rail Access Guide

Most Commuter Rail stations are accessible to people with disabilities. Learn more about train and station accessibility, entering and exiting trains, and what you can expect on your trip.

Ferry Access Guide

Accessibility across ferry routes varies across docks, boats, and location. Learn more about accessibility features, entering and exiting ferries, and what you can expect on your trip.

Need Help Accessing These Services?

The Mobility Center, located in Boston at 1000 Massachusetts Ave, can help you plan trips, apply for reduced fare passes, sign up for The RIDE, and more.

Learn more about the Mobility Center

Connecting to MBTA Services

The RIDE

The RIDE is the MBTA's door-to-door, shared-ride paratransit service. If you have a disability that prevents you from using the MBTA bus, subway, or trolley all

Ride Match

A one-stop searchable directory of public, private, and accessible transportation options in Massachusetts.

or some of the time, The RIDE may be able to assist with your public transportation needs.

Past Events

JUNE 11, 2025, 3:00 PM
Public Meeting | Accessibility and Daniels-Finegold v. MBTA Settlement Update (Hybrid)
State Transportation Building, 2nd Floor, Boardroom, Boston, MA

DECEMBER 11, 2024, 5:30 PM
Public Meeting | Accessibility and Daniels-Finegold v. MBTA Settlement Update (Virtual)
Virtual, Boston, MA

DECEMBER 6, 2023, 5:30 PM
Public Meeting | Accessibility and Daniels-Finegold v. MBTA Settlement Update (Virtual)
Virtual, Boston, MA

View all events

Attend an Upcoming RTAG Meeting

Want to help guide the direction of accessibility at the MBTA? Join the Riders' Transportation Access Group (RTAG), a customer organization that provides input on issues affecting people with disabilities and older adults who use the T.

More Resources

Download the latest Accessibility Initiatives Report

Stay Informed

Get accessibility news, updates, and advance notice of events delivered to your inbox.

Sign Up for Email Updates

Call Us

INFORMATION & SUPPORT

Monday thru Friday:
6:30 AM - 8 PM

Main: 617-222-3200

711 for TTY callers; VRS for ASL callers

EMERGENCY CONTACTS

24 hours, 7 days a week

Transit Police:
617-222-1212

TTY: 711

REPORT A RAILROAD CROSSING GATE ISSUE

To report a problem or emergency with a railroad crossing, call 800-522-8236

© Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority, all rights reserved.